The Company has paid over Two Million Dollars in direct benefits to the holders of its Accident Policies. There is no man who is not liable to accident, and the weekly indemnity is a benefit not obtainable under an ordinary Life Policy. To a machinist, carpenter, or other working man whose income stops the moment he is disabled from work, this feature is of great value.

WHAT ARE THE CHANCES OF ACCIDENT?

Statistics show that ONE PERSON IN EVERY TEN meets with an accident every year. It is a common error with the public to suppose that the Accident Policies of this Commany are chiefly for TRAVELEIS, or to cover the accidents of travel. In fact but a small portion of the losses paid were caused by "accident of travel." This misconception arises from the Company's name. It should be generally understood that Insurance is made against GENERAL ACCIDENTS to men of all professions, trades, or occupations; its policies cover "bodily injuries, effected endeavored to engage him in conversation, but he continued sullen and would have little or nothing to say. As night had now come on, pickets were stationed, and the rest of the party lay down and were soon asleep. About midnight they were aroused by a shout, immediately followed by an attack of the legless one-armed men of Obiljipoona, who discharged themselves at their enemies by means of a device curious in the extreme. They had slowly worked their way into the trees by inserting the strong nails of their hands, one after another, into the bark, until a limb fit circles in both Cincinnati and Coving then flung themselves from this branch fortnight past—the marriage of Miss
